

Profile of The Week

This column attempts to acquaint Campbell residents with the background of most of its leading citizens, to make for a greater interest in the activities of the Campbell area.

Pictures from the files of the Campbell Press will be drawn, by lot, for the first of the articles. When this supply is exhausted, pictures of newer residents will be taken, to run in conjunction with stories.

RICHARD W. MORTON

Campbell's first mayor, 37 year old Richard W. Morton, third generation of Mortons in Campbell, has a distinguished educational and professional background.

Graduated from Campbell schools (Grammar, 1930; High School, 1933) he took his L. L. B. degree, magna cum laude from University of Santa Clara in 1937, and cum laude in 1939.

After admission to the State Bar of California December 1939, he accepted a professorship at University of Santa Clara in 1940 following graduate research work in Law (1939-1940) at Stanford University.

Although Campbell's mayor earned many scholarship honors during his school years among which are membership in California Scholarship Federation, while at CUHS, Silver Distinguished student medal in 1936 during undergraduate work at Santa Clara and two time winner of Coolidge Moot Court Competition during his graduate term at Santa Clara, he was also active in other affairs.

He was editor of the Oriole yearbook and member of the tennis team at Campbell High, and was active in debating, dramatics, and tennis during his college years.

In 1940 after graduate work at Stanford, Morton married the former Betty M. Herold of San Jose. Their three children, Raymond, 12, Jane Marie, 8, and Ronald, 6, who attend Campbell schools, make the fourth generation of Mortons who have lived in Campbell.

The Mayor's father, the late Herold W. Morton, and grandfather, Wallace T. Morton, residents of Campbell, owned and operated the Campbell Lumber Co. from 1912 until 1943 when it was purchased by James B. Arends Sr.

A brother, Will R. Morton, is head of the Nuclear Development Department of Beckman Inc., Richmond Division.

Morton was appointed special research assistant to the California District Court of Appeals and served from 1943 to 1944.

He served as Attorney for Rent Control Division, office of Price Administration, during 1944-1945, before entering private practice of law with Harvey C. Miller in San Jose in 1945.

Present law firm is Miller, Morton and Wright with offices in First National Bank Building, San Jose and offices on E. Campbell Ave. in Campbell.

Campbell's mayor is a member of the board of Trustees of the Santa Clara County Community Welfare Council, member of the Board of Directors of Santa Clara County Sanitation District No. 4, member of the board of Trustees of Campbell Congregational Church, member of the Santa Clara County Bar Association, and member of the American Bar Association.

Away from his law offices, when not participating in his many activities, Morton likes to relax by playing tennis, by fishing or hunting, or, like the police patrolman who takes a walk on his day off, by arguing law and politics.

Community Chest To Launch Big Fund Campaign

The Campbell Area Community Chest Campaign Board of Directors under the leadership of Edward Tablak will launch the most extensive fund drive ever attempted in this district, Sept. 16.

Under the Red Feather banner for the first time, the Campbell Area Community Chest Committee in planning to contact every home in the area. During the first week in September volunteer workers will visit each home to explain the needs and services of the Community Chest. These workers will return on the evening of September 16 to collect the pledge or contribution from each family visited. It will be possible to be billed for payment in October or November.

The emphasis of the campaign, according to chairman Tablak will be to remind people who do not work in the Campbell area to remember to ask that their contributions at work be given to the Campbell Chest or at least to ask that their contributions be split so that the Campbell district gets some benefit.

A questionnaire survey made throughout the Campbell area last spring indicated that many people residing in the Campbell area have not realized that the agencies which serve this district must be paid for by funds collected in this district.

As a result of the questionnaire, the Board of Directors also learned that residents of Campbell and the surrounding area did not realize that the service fund collected each year was identical to the Community Chest Drives in other communities. After careful investigation the Board voted to join the other Red Feather organizations and to use the name, Campbell Area Community Chest.

Tuesday evening, Aug. 18, the Area Chairmen met with the Campaign Committee in the Campbell High School. All areas west of Winchester Ave. are under the supervision of Steve Anderson of Lucot way. His Area Captains are Mrs. Ray Snyder of Devon Ave., Mrs. James Cardellino of Lucot Way, Mrs. Gerald Thompson of Robin Lane, Mrs. E. C. Leick of Pollard Rd., Mrs. Henry Parysek of N. Milton Ave., Mrs. W. E. Haggerty of Opal Drive and Mrs. John Brown of Wedgewood Ave.

All areas east of Winchester Ave are under the supervision of Mrs. Eugene Blair of New Jersey Ave., and her area Captains are Mrs. Edabelle Little of Kessling Ave., Mrs. Andre Seaman of Thornton Way, Mrs. R. E. Renard of Chameran Ave., and Mrs. Chas. Williamson of So. 1st St.

SCOUT PROGRAM SET FOR NEXT KIWANIS MEET

Bud Levenberg, Kiwanis program chairman for Tuesday's meeting, introduced Don Lima, general chairman of the Community Fair as well as several queen contests in a short program concerning the fair.

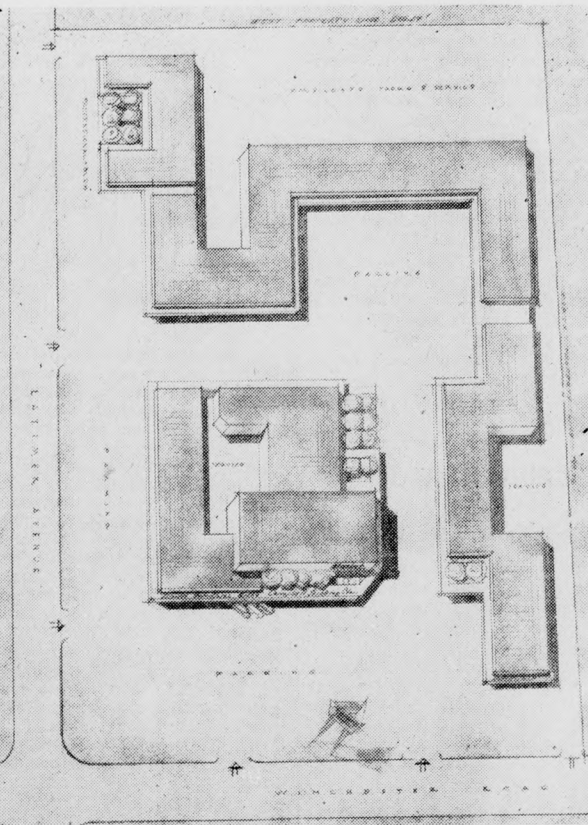

Next week's program according to Dr. Morrell, program chairman, will consist of a talk from Ken Robison, Campbell Union High School Recreation Supervisor on scouting activities in the Campbell area.

Kiwanis members are warming up for the annual softball game against the Campbell Rotary Club. Club barbecue is set for Sept. 8 at the home of member Ray Bishop, according to members.

60 Parking Tickets Issued In Week

Approximately 60 parking and other traffic violation tickets were issued in Campbell by local police during the week in line with city's crackdown on new regulations.

Majority of tickets were given, according to senior police officer Robert J. Locke, for violations on Campbell and Harrison Aves. for overtime parking, parking in driveways, parking on the wrong side of the street, and parking in front of fire plugs.

ONE STOP . . . shopping center, proposed for early construction on 12 acres of lands of H. Y. Rice on Northwest corner of Winchester and Latimer Aves., is shown above in architect's drawing. Plans submitted for City council approval call for 130,000 square feet of building space, with 120,000 allotted for retail establishment, 10,000 square feet for a medical dental building, 393,550 square feet for service and parking space, and additional parking space for 1,000 automobiles.

Real Estate is being handled by H. T. McMullen of San Jose.

Merchants Offer Valuable Prizes For Next Thursday

Next Thursday will be a lucky day for some Campbell shopper. Aside from being the regular end of the month Double Stamp Day, during which merchants participating in the Campbell Stamp Association give double stamps for every dollar's worth of goods purchased, there will be prizes of valuable Sunbeam appliances given away at a drawing, time and place of which will be announced in next week's issue of the Campbell Press.

To be eligible for the drawing, shoppers buying at stores belonging to the association will be given free tickets with each one dollar purchase, on which shoppers will write their name and address. Names will be drawn and prizes awarded at the drawing.

Prizes to be given away include a Sunbeam mixer which sells at retail for $46.50, a Sunbeam cooker and deep fryer which sells for $31.95, a Sunbeam coffee maker, retail price of which is $37.50 and a Sunbeam Ironmaster worth $14.95. Total value of prizes to be given away amount to $130.00.

Next week's issue of the Press will carry many bargains for the thrifty shopper outfitting children for the new school year, and, in addition, news stories giving opening dates, locations and transportation facilities to local schools as well as clothing information and other helpful hints in getting the children back to school.

Kerr Estimates Of City Income Within $200.00

Accuracy of statistical reports compiled by the late Leslie Kerr, for the committee for Campbell incorporation two years ago, was borne out recently, in a comparison of his report published in the Campbell Press August 3, 1951, and Campbell's first financial statement, published by the Press July 30, 1953.

Two years ago, Kerr computed city's first year income from State subventions and grants at $68,600.00. Actual city income, according to city statement amounted to $68,778.89. Kerr missed by $178.89. Kerr repeatedly emphasized in his report, however, that his figures were approximate, and were based on an estimated 10,000 population, and, in his report, said figure depended on approval of the area selected by the boundary committee.

Kerr said his population figure represented an electorate of 3,334 persons.

Actual population figure accepted by the State, for income purposes is 6,773, actual number of residents in the city. State allocations are based on ratio of each city's population to the total population of all California cities, and computed at three times the number of registered electors within the city, or by an official U. S. Bureau of Census count.

BEVY OF BEAUTIES . . . eagerly awaiting outcome of final judging to choose "Miss Campbell of 1953" and Queen of Santa Clara County Fair" at Campbell Junior Chamber of Commerce dinner at Villa Felice, August 25, are three of locally sponsored queen contestants, vying for the title. At left is CAMPBELL LIONS CLUB ENTRY MARTY STRONG who sings in a quartet, has auditioned to TV, who has appeared on Les Malloy show, has studied tap and ballet dancing, and has sung at Camp Parks Air Force Base. She sells western clothes at Workingman's store and does office work. She likes horses, dancing, and singing. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Strong, of 111 South Union Ave. Nineteen years old she is five feet two inches tall and has measurements of 33, 33, and wears size 9.

Next to Miss Strong is CAMPBELL VFW ENTRY CONSTANCE CONTOS, 20 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Ellis of 15361 Chameran Ave., Cambrian Park who likes horses, singing, writing, and has performed on radio and television shows. She has been singing with Foreman Bill's western band for the past three years. She is a trim 36, 25, size 12. She weighs 130. Third from left in photo is Lee McGowen who has resigned from the contest because of death in the family. On the far right is CAMPBELL KIWANIS ENTRY, PAT TAYLOR who works for E. B. Standish in Cambrian Park, has sung on the Horace Heidt show, with Dick Cantino, at Parks Air Force Base, and at Letterman Hospital and sings with the Les Malloy show in San Francisco. SHOPPING CENTER PLANS SUBMITTED; HAMILTON - MILTON BID ACCEPTED; KEESLING STATION PERMIT GRANTED

Public hearing on application of H. Y. Rice for a use and zone permit for construction of a million dollar shopping center on 12 acres of his land at Northwest corner of Winchester and Latimer Aves. was set Monday night by City Council for Tuesday, September 8. Application was referred to planning consultant for report.

ROTARY HINTS NEW PITCH WILL STOP KIWANIS

Local merchants with ruddy glows of health and springy walks are probably members of Campbell Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs who have been practicing for their fourth annual softball tilt scheduled, after many postponements, for Sept. 25 at the Grammar school turf.

As before, the losing team will buy dinners for all members of the victorious team. In 1950 the "Softball saga" ended in a 16-16 tie. In 1951 Rotarians hobbled away with a 15-3 victory and last year Kiwanians belted bulged with the dinner provided by rueful Rotarians as a result of a 23-12 shellacking.

Charges and counter-charges of secret practices and threats of reprisals in event of victory by either team are rumors—just rumors, the Press discovered this week through intensive research.

Rotary members, while cautious about details, have dropped veiled references to a new type pitch developed over a number of years by a Czechoslovakian Octogenarian, a member of the much publicized "Athletes at Eighty", who have remained athletically proficient in spite of advancing age.

Interviewed Kiwanians smiled when confronted with Rotary strategy which seemed to say, "What happened last year?"

The lineup:

Rotary: Homer Dynamic) Hyde, Tony (Flash) Raffanti, Leonard (Sluggo) Baptiste, Fred (Whippet) Jones, Merv (Knucklehead) Willoughby, Bill (Soap-fingered) Maderis, Cel (Dead arm) Gerevas, Doc (Tuffy) Arends, Dobie (Kalky) Jeffers, Jas (Sees all) Jasmine, Frank (Speedy) Accardi.

Mrs. Herbert Paul and daughters Barbara and Millie of San Marino, California are visiting old friends in Campbell this week, among which are Mrs. Ann Johnson and Mrs. Parysek of Milton Ave. and Mrs. Hattie De Puy of 171 South First Street.

CAMPBELL MAPS ARE AVAILABLE AT C of C OFFICE

Campbell maps are off the press and available to any resident or visitor at the Campbell Chamber of Commerce office at 19 South First Street, or at any of the local merchants.

The maps, 10,000 of them in two colors, are folded into booklet form and include, beside a street index of the city, advertisements of Campbell merchants together with a list of participating merchants of Campbell Merchant Stamp Association.

On the reverse side of the map which may be folded into booklet form complete and recent data of all aspects of the "Orchard City" including a classified business and professional directory, agricultural information, statistics such as population, postal receipts, number of residences, assessed valuation, climate, and rainfall figures may be found. Information on organizations in the city, school information, churches, recreation, topography, city background have all been assembled into readable form.

Plans submitted show data for a complete super-market, medical-dental area, and other retail establishments and parking space for 1,000 cars.

Real Estate transaction will be handled by H. T. McMullen of San Jose; Designer is James W. Davis and project will be financed by Albert Coyle, president of Mortgage Finance Company of San Jose, according to application.

No objections, oral or written, were received and permit applied for by Mervyn and Leone Keesling for a service station on Northwest corner of Hamilton and San Jose-Los Gatos Road was granted Monday night. Plans were submitted, prepared by Higgins and Root, architects for general development of all Keesling property, but applicants were informed that permit applied for would only cover the 125 square area required for the service station. Set back provisions in line with future widening of San Jose-Los Gatos Road were approved as being in line with planning consultants recommendations.

J. C. Bateman Inc. low bid of $4,000 was accepted to pave Hamilton Ave. in front of Rosemary School and to set a new grade for Milton Ave. City council directed City engineer Mark E. Thomas to proceed with the work and authorized the mayor and city clerk to execute the contract. Bateman's bid was the lowest of five received and ranged from a high of $4,973.00.

City received warrant for $1,198.96 of which $115.00 is for fines and forfeitures, and $48.96 for Building inspection fees for the month of July which were turned over to city treasurer, Ed. C. Merrill.

Letter of protest was received from C. E. Bradley, business manager of Campbell Grammar School concerning one hour parking limit in front of Grammar School. Letter was referred to Streets and Highway committee for a conference with Bradley and a report back to city council.

In response to a letter from city officials, State division of Highways said it had no comments to make concerning issuing of permit for a wrecking yard for A. Vaccarella. Matter will come up at Monday's meeting and officials said a decision would be reached at that time.

A. C. Goulding, of 361 North San Jose-Los Gatos Road, present at the meeting, inquired if permit granted last week to Nank L. Callish to construct a small animal clinic at 287 North San Jose-Los Gatos Road could be rescinded. He was informed by city Attorney Joseph A. Bonacina that nothing more could be done on the matter since permit had already been granted.

Harry Weisend asked fire Chief Jack B. Scott for specification of incinerator required in his permit for a wrecking yard in the Los Gatos Creek. Fire Chief was directed to confer with Weisend and report back to council.

Fire Chief Scott was instructed to install new hydrants in new subdivisions and all new installations. Scott informed council that new hydrants would cost $50 more apiece than old type.

Scott was also directed to prepare data for job classification for fire department employees. Scott recommended salaries to be set at $300 monthly with three $15 increases on a probationary period of six months. Age limit would be 21 to 40, weight not less than 160 pounds, height not less than 5' 6" and educational requirement of no less than three years of high school. Applicants would have to live no more than one mile from city limits but would have 90 days to establish residence. Retirement benefits would be in line with California State system and fireman would be granted two weeks vacation with pay each year.

Planning Consultant Nestor Barrett reported that he had discussed sewer lines west of the San Jose-Los Gatos Highway with county health officials and that it might What's Going on in Our Hospitals?

VII--THE BUILDING BOOM

By LAWRENCE A. WILLIAMS Science Writer

"I called every hospital in the county, and not one of them would accept my wife. She needs an operation right away, but the best any of them will do is schedule her three weeks in advance."

Variations of this complaint are familiar to every newspaper editor in California. When the editor calls the hospitals he finds that the wife's surgery can wait as well as or better than the many other operations filling the surgery schedules and that operating room time left open for emergency cases has been cut to a dangerous minimum.

California has a hospital bed shortage of 45,379, despite the fact that San Francisco and some other cities have enough beds in general hospitals. The state will need 82,000 additional beds to accommodate our expected 1960 population of 13,500,000, according to the state Hospital Survey and Construction Program. How these needs are being met is one of the most heartening stories in our hospital saga.

BUILDING DELAYS
We had no money to build hospitals in the 1930's, and in the war years materials were scarce and the only hospitals built were military. Existing hospitals did the best they could with what they had. By operating at peak capacity and by getting patients on their feet faster, hospitals in California managed to accept all who needed care, but it was often a narrow squeak. There was no safety margin in case of epidemic or disaster.

The national situation was similar. The Hill-Burton Act was passed to help relieve the hospital bed shortage. It provided that federal money would match state and local funds to construct or enlarge hospitals in areas where shortages existed. The Hospital Survey and Construction Program was set up under state law to provide California money to match federal and local money in hospital construction.

Since 1947 the United States has spent $17,455,014, California has spent $10,252,159 in matching local money for the construction of 52 hospital projects and 11 public health centers in the state.

This resulted in adding 3600 beds to new and existing hospitals in the state—most of them new short-term, general hospitals.

In this period the state added 9000 beds to tax-supported mental hospitals.

PRIVATE RESOURCES
And in the same six years private and non-profit hospitals expanded their facilities, adding 8747 beds without calling on the state for financial help. This, at an average construction and equipment cost of nearly $17,000 a bed, amounts to $150,000,000 raised independently of government aid.

We needed about 50,000 beds six years ago. Our population has been increasing so rapidly that we still need more than 45,000 hospital beds in spite of the more than 21,000 constructed since 1947.

The Bureau of Hospitals of the State Department of Public Health quotes these figures. According to the Bureau, adequate hospital facilities require 4½ general short-term hospital beds for every 1000 population, five mental hospital beds, and two beds in chronic hospitals per 1000 population. Bed requirements in tuberculosis hospitals are estimated at 2½ per every tuberculosis death.

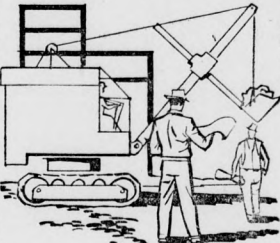

Deaths from tuberculosis have declined dramatically in recent years and the need for additional facilities has declined. But as medicine and hospital care add years to our lives, more beds are needed in hospitals for chronic diseases and for the aged.

California has 34,519 short-term general hospital beds, needs 15,438 more now, and will need 28,553 more by 1960.

We have only 5058 beds in long-term hospitals for chronic cases, we need 15,784 additional beds now and will need 31,324 more by 1960. Mental hospitals account for most of the remaining beds.

An important factor in the current building program is the construction, renovation and equipping of hospital facilities other than bed capacity—X-ray and laboratory departments, and surgeries.

SAFETY MEASURES
A committee of the California Hospital Association, working with the State Fire Marshal, has recommended safety measures for hospital surgery and for rooms where flammable gases are stored. Throughout the state, every possible precaution is taken in operating rooms constructed or renovated to conform to the standards.

Conductive flooring reduces the chances of static electricity igniting anesthetic gas. Mercury light switches are at least five feet above the floor. Air conditioning removes gas before it can accumulate to the point of fire hazard. Lights, motors and other equipment are shielded and grounded to prevent sparks.

Millions of dollars are being spent by hospitals to bring all surgeries into conformity.

In a few years there will be no spot in California more than an hour's drive from a modern hospital, and for most of the population the drive will take less than 15 minutes.

NEW ARRIVAL

Wells

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert M. Wells are the proud parents of a new son, Kenny Lee, born July 23 at O'Connor Hospital. The family lives at 80 North Harrison St., Campbell.

When we came West, we discovered... Gas and electricity are cheap in California

How P. G. and E.'s low rates save the Shipseys money

Here are the appliances that make the Shipseys' attractive Chico home even more enjoyable.

The Shipseys' P. G. and E. bill (recent month) . . . $8.48
In their former home, the same amount of electricity and gas would cost . . . $16.03

One of the first things that impressed Mr. and Mrs. Shipsey when they moved to California in 1950 was that gas and electricity cost far less here than in their former home. The Shipseys can also measure this bargain in another way: P. G. and E.'s combined rates are actually lower now than in 1938. So let low-cost gas and electricity do more of your work . . . give you added leisure.

BITTER MEDICINE

The administration of medicine to youngsters often poses problems which only parents can understand. To win co-operation from a finicky child sometimes requires the patience of Job and the persuasion of Paul. The taste of modern pharmaceuticals, however, is greatly improved over the intensely bitter preparations used a few decades ago. Distasteful drugs are carefully masked by sugar-coatings, capsules, syrups, and other pleasing vehicles. To provide medicine in palatable form is the pharmacist's art. This is of primary concern here. Naturally, we cannot guarantee that all prescriptions will be pleasing to the taste, but we do our very best to make them so.

New Buildings Planned For City

Two new commercial buildings will be constructed in Campbell in the near future following granting of use permits to M. Nimerick and to Frank L. Callisch by Campbell City Council.

Construction has already started on Nimerick's building on South Winchester Road next to Winchester Hardware store on the north. Plans call for a 55 x 72 foot commercial building to be divided into two stores with the larger store especially designed for furniture. According to contractor E. R. Garrison the building may be adapted for any business because of additional rough plumbing and floor and wall installations planned.

The front of the building will be of tile, stucco, roman brick and redwood, with the glass front to be eyebrowed by a redwood marquee and fronted with planter boxes including a recessed shadow box in roman brick column between the stores, Nimerick said.

Nimerick now in the real estate business near Los Gatos, was a former business man and mayor of Chowchilla.

Also planned for early construction is the small animal clinic of Frank L. Callisch to be operated by his son-in-law veterinarian Dr. Richard C. Weldon at 287 North San Jose-Los Gatos Road. The proposed building and facilities will be located on a 60 by 278 foot lot, and will be of sufficient size, according to owners to take care of 35 small animals such as dogs, cats and birds. The proposed building will be 1100 feet from Hamilton Ave.

Campbell Man Is Involved In Minor Accident

Harry Aldolph Bullerick, 60, of 916 Elm St., Campbell, a switchman for the Southern Pacific Railroad, was involved in an auto accident Sunday afternoon at 3:23 p. m. on the Oakland Road, three quarters of a mile south of Alameda county line. Other driver in the accident was James Alvin Treat, 32, of 15909 Mateo Street in San Leandro. Injured slightly in the accident was Zola Treat. She was taken to her own doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nelson of 111 South First Street, are entertaining Mrs. Nelson's parents who arrived Tuesday night from Billerica, Massachusetts, for a month's visit in Campbell. One of the key reasons for the visit according to Mr. Nelson is to see their seven months old twins Hugh III and Beth.

Alice Mogensen, 19 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mogensen, of 408 Ardis Ave., sponsored by Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club, has worked as a fashion model, and photographer's model in San Jose, and likes to swim, cook and sew.

Strike Delays Work At El Quito School

Due to the recent laborer's strike the completion of the El Quito Park School addition has been delayed. To avert double sessions there, the Board of Trustees is attempting to secure temporary housing in the Quito Park Shopping Center. Also all kindergarten children in the District will attend school at Moreland this year, freeing another classroom for use by a grade.

Kindergarten enrollment now stands at 106 and a maximum enrollment of 130 has been established. When that figure is reached, a waiting list will be started.

The Board meeting are held on the second Tuesday of the month in Room 12 at 8 P. M. The next regular meeting will be September 8, 1953 and the public is always welcome to attend.

THE RAINBOWS THAT COME IN CANS

Remember the last time you took a can of paint and stirred it up with a little imagination and some brushwork?

We'll bet it gave you a different slant on life, whether it brightened a part of your house or gave a child's toy a colorful look.

To help make your life brighter—and easier—today's paints come in every tint and hue of the rainbow. Best of all, the modern miracle paints come to you ready to use.

America's paint industry and the American Can Company virtually grew up together.

The paint companies worked out formulas for ready-mixed paints that do just about any special job you have in mind. Meanwhile, Canco developed practical leak-proof containers, with their now familiar "double-clinch" covers, to keep paint fresh during shipping and storage, until you are ready to use it.

New plants and whole new industries were able to get started when Canco developed the right container for ready-mixed paints. This meant new and better jobs, and a higher level of prosperity for us all.

Yes, by making better cans—not only for paints but for just about everything you can think of—Canco has been able to help all Americans eat better, live better and work better.

We can be proud of such teamwork between our people and our business enterprises. That's what makes America such a satisfying country to live and work in. And it promises a future—"bright as paint"—for us all.

Hunt's Foods Cannery A Campbell Landmark

Shown above are various operations in the handling, processing and warehousing of raw fruit from Santa Clara and other valleys at Hunt Foods Inc. Cannery on Harrison and Campbell Ave. which is presently employing 857 people in two shifts. In upper left photo, Bobbie Hartzell of 775 South Third Street, Campbell, operates one of the plants 55 peach pitters in the fruit preparation department. In next picture Ras and Hans Nielsen, of 124 North Central Ave. (center) in charge of shipping and warehousing operation, supervise labeling operations and can crating before final inspection and storage to await demands of nation's grocers and wholesalers.

In center picture employees check machines which measure, in correct proportion cherries, pineapple, grapes, pears and peaches which go to make up the popular canned fruit cocktail, another specialty of the local cannery.

Photo at right shows a section of the hand canning department where peach halves are hand packed into cans containing two and one half peaches. Superintendent Raymond Howard said this was the only operation of the Hunt Foods Cannery that is done by hand.

Below left, Joe Ellis of 769 Hazel Ave. operates machine which covers and seals cans of fruit which have just come steaming from plant's cookers. Cans enter can closing machine on the left and emerge tightly sealed on the right of the machine from where they are carried by conveyor belt to be labeled and crated.

In the receiving department, (lower right) Manuel Fields of Rt. 1, Box 428, receiving foreman, supervises operation of a grader sizer in the initial operation of the huge cannery. Raw fruit is received from company and common carriers, loaded onto various machines for grading, sizing, sorting and stemming before being sent to the preparation department.

The Campbell plant is one of four canneries in the Pacific Northwest owned by Hunt's corporation. The Campbell plant was started in 1886 by J. C. Ainsley.

Canning season this year started August 5, when the first batch of pears were received from the Sacramento Valley, but did not start around the clock operations until August 11. The plant presently employs 857 people with 235 on the day shift in the preparation department and 198 night shift. In the canning department workers start the day shift at 7 a. m. and 135 take over their duties at 7 p. m. In the cook room, according to plant superintendent Raymond Howard 36 work the day shift and 31 at night. Warehousing requires the services of 37 in the daytime and 29 at night, and general maintenance work requires 10 employees in the daytime and 21 at night.

Hours are governed by the actual amount of raw fruit received.

LOCAL CANNERY OPERATIONS NOW IN FULL SWING

Fruit harvesting time for local ranchers, means canning time for Campbell's heavy industry, Hunt Foods Inc. Campbell branch, off Campbell and Harrison Aves. is now operating at peak capacity processing local fruits for ultimate consumption throughout the nation.

Fresh pears, peaches, and grapes from the Sacramento River region, apricots from local valley ranches, canned pineapple from Hawaii, dried cherries from local and other ranches, arrive daily at the Harrison Street entrance by company and common carrier and emerge cooked, canned, and crated for eventual distribution to the nation's grocers.

Although the Campbell plant is one huge building and the fruit processing is one continuous operation under the whirl of giant fan belts and huge machinery it is broadly divided, according to superintendent Raymond Howard, into four main divisions including receiving, canning, cooking and warehousing.

Franklin Blaine of 63 So. Second Street, has charge of the incoming raw fruit in the receiving department where trucks from local and other orchards unload to various machines which grade, sort size, and otherwise prepare fruit for the cooking and canning operations which follow. Foreman of this initial operation is Manuel Fields of Rt. No. 1, Box 428, Campbell.

Before the fruit can be cooked or canned, Howard explained, 235 employees on the day shift and 198 at night work in the preparation department where peaches are peeled, pitted and sliced; grapes are sorted, stemmed, and washed; and the various fruits for fruit cocktails are sorted and cleaned.

For this operation nimble fingered women employees operate the plant's 55 peach pitters, 18 pear corers, cherry pitters and stemmers in the largest department in terms of space occupied, machinery used, and number of employees at work, the superintendent said.

Only hand operation in the huge plant is done by women who hand pack peach halves, he said.

Following the prepared fruit, at this stage in unsealed and unlabeled cans on conveyor belts, Howard explained that steam from the boiler room across the street is piped into the huge cookers, after which the canned fruit goes into the final phase of preparation before shipping or storage.

In charge of the warehouse department is Hans Nielsen of 124 North Central Ave. Here the cans are fed into the plant's 12 can closing machines for hermetic sealing.

Supervising this operation is Guido De Vincenzi of Willow Glen, and Reggie Gaze of 225 Esther Ave., on the night shift.

Cans are then labeled with the company insignia and go next to a platform where cans are inspected for air tight seals, uniform and neatly placed labels before crating and storage.

In the front office in charge of the myriad clerical matters is Bill Chamberlain.

Edward Neuroth is the company's field department supervisor, Gordon Miller is supervisor of the Plant Laboratory, and Lee McGowan, Shirley Frank, Margaret Buckner, and Sally Howard make up the clerical staff.

Laboratory assistants are anice Jones, Eva Coleman, Bonnie D. Smith. Night technician is Genevieve Frappier. Miss Alice Lambert is receptionist secretary of the Campbell plant.

Warehouse department is under the supervision of Hans Nielson on the day shift and Julius Bachman at night. Russel Lambert is shipping, receiving and stock clerk. The Campbell plant is one of four of Hunt Food Inc. in the Pacific Northwest, Howard said.

Other plants are located at Washington, Utah, Bridgeton, New Jersey, and after a recent merger the company now has the General Foods plant in New York.

The Campbell plant has been a local institution since 1886 when it was started by J. C. Ainsley.

DRIVER KILLED AT QUITO R. R. CROSSING HERE

On a vacationing trip to visit friends in Campbell Rudolph Herlofsen, about 43, was killed early Monday evening when his car and Southern Pacific commuter train collided at the Quito Road crossing between McCoy Ave. and Polard Rd.

He was taken to County Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Hospital attendants said identity was established through union cards which indicated Herlofsen had worked on some dam projects in different sections of Oregon. His home address was not immediately known. The Herlofsen vehicle was a total loss, but the train, the regular San Francisco-Los Gatos commuter, though damaged, continued to Los Gatos.

Children from all playgrounds of the Campbell Union High School District will come to the High School Field this afternoon for a giant playday to wind up this season's recreation activities, according to Recreation Director Ken Robinson.

There will be sack races, relays, swimming, a pie eating contest, and watermelon feed to celebrate the closing of the playground season.

The High School swimming lessons, under the direction of manager L. M. Scroggins, will continue for another two weeks, Robinson said, until August 29.

3 New Teachers For Quito School

Quito School, at 500 Quito Road is a far cry from the one-roomers that sufficed for children of years ago if they happened to live outside the city.

Modern, airy classrooms, a spacious playyard that is being improved constantly, and a large, spotless cafeteria specializing in delicious, nourishing lunches and doubling as auditorium, make school so inviting that the children can hardly wait for summer to end so that they can return to their studies. (The last fifteen or twenty words should be taken with a very small grain of salt, of course.)

Quito School includes kindergarten through sixth grades and expects an enrollment this year of close to three hundred pupils. In order to cope with the increase, Mrs. Dorothy Sutter, principal, has announced the engagement of three new teachers. They will join the present staff which includes Mrs. Esther Craig, Mrs. Esther Fore, Mrs. Margery Foster, Mrs. Doris Hubbard, and Miss Barbara Mackay.

The newcomers to the faculty are Miss Laura Blaine, who formerly taught at San Tomas; Mrs. Notia Smith from Loma Prieta; and Mr. Gilman McMillan. Mr. McMillan, who is visiting his wife's family in Tahiti at present is a recent graduate and Quito will be his first teaching post.

The school's P. T. A. and Dad's Club were very active last year and already are looking for new fields to conquer with the coming of the '53-'54 term.

Mrs. Thomas Stevenson, president of the P. T. A., and Mrs. Robert Landis have announced plans for a Farmers' Fair to be held early in October. It is to be a real old-fashioned country fair with hayrides, pie-eating contests, and booths featuring the members' finest plants, flowers, canned fruits, pies, cakes, etc. A dance in the evening will close the festivities.

The Dad's Club in their first year of being, demonstrated what hard work and imagination can accomplish. They planted all the trees, shrubs, and flowers around the buildings, constructed a baseball backstop and gym equipment, to say nothing of the mammoth boxing show they staged.

Everything looks rosy for Quito students this term. Does anyone miss the "little red brick school-house"?

Moreland School Has Excellent Library System

Moreland has been able to have a central circulating library for grades 3 to 8 for several years.

The first library was begun in 1941 in one of the vacant rooms in the old school with Mrs. Bernice Grennan in charge. When it was necessary to add a 4th teacher in 1945 the room became a classroom and the books were distributed among the various classes.

In 1948 Mrs. Bertha Hoagland began the present library, housed the books in the kindergarten room and conducted regular library periods in her classroom.

In 1951 when additional rooms were being constructed (for the third time), they were able to take part of the space allotted to the kitchen and make a Stock room in the Multi-Use Room. This removed the books from the kindergarten without sacrificing a classroom or equivalent space.

The beneficial effects of this library program are beginning to be evident in the reading scores of the eighth grade graduates. For the last two years, 1952 and 1953 they have had many students with high school reading ability and a few on freshman college level.

The central stock room frees the teacher of the responsibility of personally providing a new book for each child each week and also makes it possible for the student to be provided with a book suited to his reading ability regardless of chronological age or grade placement.

Red hot iron cools more quickly in water than in air at the same temperature because the denser water soaks up heat better than air. Water is some 800 times denser than air and is a much better conductor of heat.

TAX ASSOCIATION SPEAKER TALKS TO ROTARIANS

E. F. DeVilbiss, representative of Santa Clara County Taxpayers Association, guest speaker of Campbell Rotary Club at their regular meeting Monday discussed "Local Government and the Role of the Taxpayers Association".

DeVilbiss spoke of the need for such an association in light of the large tax burden, complexity of government and the rapid growth of the area.

DeVilbiss told Rotarians how in monthly meetings the tax group discusses such matters as budget analysis in line with their research service and promotion of worthwhile legislation. DeVilbiss also talked about Tax Association's counseling service, and mentioned its public relations and publicity departments to keep the public informed of its activities.

Rotary Chairman of the day was Al Smith. Business matters taken up at the meeting included a report from District Governor in which he informed Campbell Rotarians that the local attendance record of 95.83 placed them 10th in the district.

Cel Gerevas reported that the annual Rotary-Kiwanis softball game is set for Tuesday, September 1st. Time is 6:30 p. m. at the Campbell Grammar School.

Gerevas also reminded Rotarians that winner receives a free dinner at the expense of the defeated team. He reminded club members that last year it was the Rotary which was defeated, and cautioned against a repeat this year.

DAHLIAS SPRUCE UP GARDEN

As the warm weather reaches its peak, there is often need for sprucing up a bare corner of the garden to replace worn out spring plantings or vacation neglected areas. Many plants will come to mind as ideal for hot weather planting. The California Bedding Plant Advisory Board suggests one of the top favorites in this group, the dwarf dahlia, which is available at this time of the year as fully developed plants in nursery flats.

Quick color and abundant coverage are two good features of this type of dahlia plus its "take hold" ability even in a full state of development. Such willingness to grow makes it possible to plant dwarf seedlings in full bloom and have them give immediate color that will continue on until a killing frost takes them down.

Dwarf dahlias take full sun and prefer a loose well-drained soil for best results. With a full color range excepting the blue shades, they are best planted in mass beds with solid color borders of dwarf marigolds, dwarf celosia, dwarf petunias, or dwarf ageratum. These plants available in bloom also exhibit fine "take hold" qualities and share the cultural requirements of the dwarf dahlias.

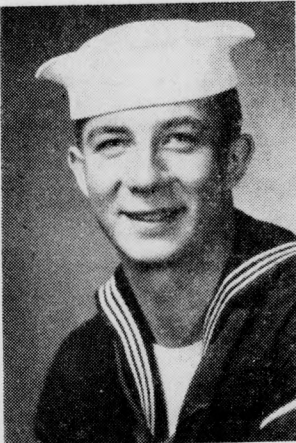

The growth of the dwarf dahlias is tidy enough to make them ideal for use in narrow beds of 18" or more in width or for planting against a house or wall. In such cramped quarters a border planting should not be used as the dahlias will crowd out the lower growing border plants.

Dwarf dahlias do well in pots and can be used as an inexpensive indoor blooming house plant for periods up to two weeks. Similarly they are useful for patio planters or other conditions where soil volume is limited and cultivation is at a minimum.
